IMPORTANT MESSAGE:

Dr. Phillips-Reed is greatly appreciative for the outpouring of love and care shown to the family during this difficult time.

While we are looking forward to celebrating the life and the legacy of Junius “June” Reed together with you, we also want you to know that the health and safety of you, your families and ourselves are highly important to us.

The church has enhanced their already implemented safety practices but we also encourage all participants and guests who attend the Celebration of Life Services to be vigilant and mindful of good safety practices when interacting with friends, family and visitors. We encourage you to please stay home if you are experiencing any coughing, sneezing, and/or fevers or if you are not feeling well in order to minimize contact with others.

We once again appreciate all of your condolences and prayers during this time and we thank you all for your consideration to this matter.

Dr. Phillips-Reed & Family
