“ My sincere condolences to the family and the friends of Kamarri. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief, but you can find comfort and hope in God's word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15; John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow, may you draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ My sincere condolences to the family and friends of Kamarri. Losing a loved one is very painful but losing a child is even more painful. I cant imagine the grief. May you find comfort, as I have, in the Almighty God of love ,who is not responsible for death and gives us his word the Bible that provides the hope of the resurrection. (John 5:28,29, john 11:25,26) and a time when there will be no more death (Isaiah 25:8, Revelation 21:3,4). If you desire more information on the relief of tragedies, sickness and death and the hope for the future, please go to jw.org for bible answers.

“ To the Family:

May "the God of all comfort" grant you all peace as you keep in mind..."God sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1John 4:9). God's loving resurrection provision assures us: "The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (John 5:28,29). Continue to "draw close to God and he will draw close to you." (James 4:8). God is faithful and always keeps his promises! Consider Revelation 21:3-5.

“ Hi I'm very sorry for your loss I know that losing someone you know and love can be very hard to cope with but the bible can bring comfort at John 5:28. It says "Do not be amazed at this for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." So this scripture is saying that Jehovah God will resurrect our passed loved ones, and we will be able to see them again. I'm so glad I could share this with you today and if you have any questions or would like more bible based information please visit JW.org
