“Karen Frazier was a dear, sweet friend.

She always got a kick out of reminding me that her birthday was two days after mine. For her the fact that we celebrated close birth dates solidified her regard for me as a suitable friend. You see. For Karen, as for many of us, friendships...are as important as family. Oh...it was fine with her that I was one of Art's friends...but I was now HER friend, too!

Art & Kyle, I extend my heartfelt condolences to you and to your extended family. Karen loved you both beyond measure. I loved how she beamed whenever she would talk to me about, you, Art... and I particularly got a kick out of her referring to you, Kyle, as The Off-Spring in her Facebook posts.

Karen was an awesome person. She breathed life into every situation and brought so much joy into the lives of the people she encountered. While she is gone from this life, and her loss is deeply felt, her memory will continue to pour her love into our hearts.

May this Word of God bless you with the peace and love of Jesus Christ and bring comfort to your hearts during this time of remembrance:

“And I am convinced that nothing can ever separate us from God's love. Neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither our fears for today nor our worries about tomorrow—not even the powers of hell can separate us from God's love. No power in the sky above or in the earth below—indeed, nothing in all creation will ever be able to separate us from the love of God that is revealed in Christ Jesus our Lord.”
