“ When I received the call a few days ago that Sister Hutchins. had passed, I was shocked and deeply saddened. Such a supportive member of FIRST AME CHURCH was she, her husband and son! Upon retiring, she worked in the church office and took the position seriously and as a ministry; always providing meticulous attention to every member's call and concern. Her late sister Donna and her seven children were faithful members at Alexander Memorial AME Church where I had all of the children in the Angelic Voices Choir and eventually serving in the adult choirs and other departments of the church. Sis. Hutchins and her mother stepped in when Donna passed and reared the children. As I kept up with them for over a quarter of a century, I saw the pride that Brother and Sister Hutchins showed. Once I saw one of the two girls downtown and she, using the "Karen" smile told me that she had finished college and secured a teaching position. I also remember when the other young lady stood up in church and asked for prayer as she left for the military. The oldest boy was selected as the first student of color in a prestigious Atlanta high school. His siblings listened to him as he led after their mom died! We will always remember this Stella family. Our prayers and love for them will never wane! Brother Bernard Clay - now 83.
