“ Karen. I'm glad that our paths cross. I'm grateful for my SWM Family and when I moved to Jacksonville you invited me over to have dinner. I always loved your hairstyles and you always keep it fresh! You beautiful smile was one of a kind. I know we would rather have you on this side but I know that heaven is your home now and that's the only place better than earth. Love ya lady. Rest well. Praying for you all

“ Wen I first met and began working with you, I didn't know how to take you. But I took time to get to know you and understand that you always meant well and wanted others to succeed. You were never selfish and took the time to give credit where credit was due. The only regret is not getting know you more on a personal level. But what did know, you were a good human being that I imagine will be dearly missed. I recently spoke to you and you asked about Charleston, our 5 month old daughter. You were so in tune with others and what was going on in their life. I don't think I can say enough about the good you spread through your laughter, your humor, and kindness. Rest easy Karen-I think I speak for everyone who knew you-"Thank you for being you. And although your life was short, we felt your impact and are much better for it."---Chris R.

“ We lost the most amazing mother, daughter, sister, niece, aunt and friend on Monday. Karen, you touched so many lives with your honesty, genuine love of life and your sweet, sweet spirit! There's so many GOOD things that can be said about the person that you were....you meant a LOT, to a lot of people(my family and I included). Though one of our first conversations was an argument about which of our islands were better :- ) we agreed to disagree and from that point grew into brother and sister. I am comforted at the thought that we'll meet again one day. Until then, rest on sister. I love you.
