“ It has been a pleasure and privilege to call Ms. Karen a friend. When I began working at the Arbors, she was one of the first residents I met, and we quickly became friends. She was a daily presence in our office, always stopping to smile and say hi on her way to the business center. She would always joke and say "reporting to work". When she would be late, we would say "we are docking your pay" and we would all laugh. She would always make you feel special, and on my birthday last year, she gave me a card, and a magnet that said "glamour girl". I have that magnet on my refrigerator, and always smile when I look at it. She was always the first to help and volunteer at all resident functions, and things WILL NEVER be the same at the Arbors without her. Rest in peace ,sweet girl, Until we meet again, Barbara

It was a gift to have Karen as my friend. I've known Karen for 50 years. She was smart and very sure of herself. This lady could find something to laugh about in every situation. She was always helpful, knowledgeable and willing to share that knowledge with all. Karen loved partying and her birthday was a national holiday. Although Karen and I didn't see each other often, we always kept in touch! I spoke to her while she was in the hospital! Her last words to me was "Jean" even to the end! Her most precious possession was her children and family. Always kept me informed when something special was happening. RIP my friend....

“ Hi My Name is Vina I live in the 2700 building, I remember when I first met her, She was in the computer room. I told her I was looking for work and she said you will find something, At the time, I was going threw something, and just by talking to her she up lift me that day. I told her my mom lives in Ohio, that's is where i'm from. I said you remind me of my mother especial when I see you walking, I always said there she is again looking like my mom. As the years went by I will still see her walking and I would just wave at her, when I got the news about what happen to her, my heart felt heavy. This whole week the Devil has been trying to destroy me. When I went inside the computer room on Jan 29, I sat at the computer I looked around and smile I felt that she was in there with me. Dear God I known she is a Angle from above, and I really thank you for letting me meet her. I know now I will be looking for her just walking and waving, May god Bless her family to be strong. “ I met Karen in the computer room and we bonded over the email I received. When I got ready to leave, she rode with me to the neighborhood store, and that is how our friendship began. Karen's personality was fun, and outgoing and she never met a stranger. In life, when we meet people, we are told there is a reason, season, or lifetime. In Donald and my case, it was a season and a reason. Her spirit made us happy and she always had a smile. She has EARNED HER WINGS AND WALKING THE STREETS OF GOLD! TO GOD BE THE GLORY! “ I met Karen a year and a half ago as I was backing out of my parking space at the Arbors, and she came up to me with a big smile and introduced herself. She asked where I was going and could she ride along; and so began a wonderful new friendship. She road shotgun with from then on.....she was a real character and made a big impact on my life and I will miss her. I know she is in a better place, without pain, and I know we will see each other some day. Karen, may you rest in the peace, joy, and beauty of our Heavenly Father.

“ I visited Ms Karen on January 17, 2015. She was resting when I entered her room. When she open her eyes, she knew knew who I was and said "hi baby". I smiled at her and said I miss you. We sat and enjoyed each other, then the nurse came in and said to keep my visit short so she would get overwhelmed. I said OK. And as soon as the nurse turned her back, Ms. Karen squinted her nose and said, " you don't have to go no where". That's just cracked me up. I will always remember her feistiness and caring. She looked after my daughter just because. She was a pillar in my community. She didn't meet a stranger. I love her and thank God I met her. Muah to you Ms. Karen. You are awesome!!!

“ Sunday, 1/25/15, I shed a tear; okay a few when I got word our beloved Karen Paige had gone. I'm of Christian Faith and not sure why getting news of her passing caused the tears. I know from the life she lived, she's in a better place. Well, I guess it's for my selfish reasons of missing seeing her face around the community she lived in. Had I known her infectious demeanor and hug she gave me back in November would have been my last, I would have held on a little longer.

I'm the Lead Patrol Officer at her residential community, and she was my un-winged Angel. She often sat in her window on nights I worked, and I would receive a call alerting me she was watching. Somehow, I felt her presence around me last night as I posted outside her door. I know her presence is with me because my new goal is to be more like her. I've promised myself to see more of the beautiful flowers around me and look for the sun during whatever dark days I may walk through. I never saw Ms. Karen in a bad mood, and if someone approached her in a bad mood, they left without it. She was (IS) an awesome soul.

Ms. Karen lost a lot of her physical strength at the end of her journey. It didn't matter because she was carried the rest of the way. Knowing her, she had to be laughing as she looked at my ugly "cry-face" on Sunday. I could only imagine the jokes she told in Heaven. She would never want anyone to cry on her behalf. She got her wings, crown, King-sized bed and the pleasure of hearing The Master say "Well done". Thanks for everything Ms. Karen. See you later.
