“ You and your family's grief can be great when the enemy death strikes. You have my deepest sympathy for your loss. Please know that our father, Jehovah, has not only the power to remove death, he also has the desire to resurrect our loved ones who have fallen asleep in death. “ Although I didn't know Kareshia personally, as a concerned reader I would like to offer my condolences to the family. Loosing someone we love is one of the hardest things we will deal with in life. However, many have found comfort by looking into Gods word the Bible. The Bible assures us of a time in the near future when Gods Kingdom mentioned at Matthew 6:10 will rule over mankind. (Daniel 2:44) Under that Kingdom "no resident will say I am sick". (Isaiah 33:24) There will be no more death. (Revelation 21:3,4) The loved ones we lost in death will be resurrected. (John 5:28,29, Acts 24:15) We will live forever here on earth in the abundance of peace. (Psalms 37:11) May our Heavenly Father Jehovah, (Psalms 83:18) the God of peace grant you the mental peace and comfort needed at this difficult time. Meditate on Gods word the Bible ,and draw close to our Heavenly Father. (James 4:8) May you be comforted by family and friends, and your loving memories until these promises are fulfilled.

“ To the Family & Friends of Mrs. McDade: I offer sincere condolences and Scriptural comfort to you all. May God's loving resurrection provision (1John 4:9) give you peace as you look ahead to the time when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (John 5:28,29). God promises a future when "death will be no more." We can put full faith in these promises because God is faithful and always keeps his word! Remember..."God is for us a refuge and strength, a help that is readily found in times of distress." (Psalm 46:1)
