“ Karimah was the class "mom" at Emory when she was in school. She sat in the back row with Alethea, Francheska, and Nicole. She was a huge personality and made me laugh a lot. She had such a big heart. Once she started working at Winship she always greeted me with such enthusiasm when I stopped by to check in, I always got a huge hug and a huge smile and kind words. A genuine person with great love to give. As was said at the start of today's service, "One life to live is enough if you live it right." Karimah did. Rest in Peace my friend. I'll see you again. Love, Barbara

“ My sincerest condolences to Karimah's children and family. May you find comfort during this difficult time. I met Karimah when she enrolled in our program at Emory University. We became fast friends and started hanging out like long lost sisters. She was a funny, beautiful, vibrant, and energetic woman with a big personality. This has been a very emotional week for me after hearing about her death. She is at peace now, and I am thankful and grateful to have known her. 🥹👍❤️💚💛

“ I met Karimah through her daughter. She was a vibrant, and loving individual and would have you laughing about life itself. That smile of hers is something I'm going to miss the most about you. This has been really hard for me this week because you left too soon and I didn't get a chance to say goodbye. When you heard your name call you answered and slipped away! One day I will see you again until then RIH❤️🥹

“ I worked with Karimah For several years at IBM. She was always upbeat, happy, smiling, laughing, so much joy to be around. She worked so hard to get her nursing degree while working full time and taking care of her children. I am so very sorry to hear of her passing and I pray her family and friends will be filled with Gods peace and comfort.
