“ To the family of Karmaseh, a beautiful light is missing on earth. Karmaseh was one of my subject matter experts at IRS. She was kind, highly intelligent and a dedicated employee. Her warm infectious smile and lilting voice will be missed by all who knew her. I thank God I got to meet here. Rest in peace Karmaseh.

“ Karmaseh sat directly across from me at work, and she was like my work big sister, always making sure I was good...I'll miss our conversations between calls, her venting to me and vice versa. Such a beautiful inside and out. Praying for her mom and brother whom she loved so much, and to everyone that loved her, may the peace of God comfort you in this difficult time.

“ Me and Karmaseh instantly became sisters the first day we met at the job when she had question for me. It was like we had known each other forever. We always checked on each and made sure each other was okay. We would talk on the phone for hours about everything from love, life, family, friends, and our most favorite topic “politics”, lol. Karmaseh has always had a heart made of gold and helped anyone even a stranger that needed assistance. Her passion is people, making sure you are happy and that you know if no one else cares about you, she does. I am going to miss you dearly little sister. I know you’re happy and at peace with family and friends you love in heaven. Terra Swift (IRS)

My condolences to Carolyn and the Mann family. I had the opportunity to meet this young lady many times. The last time was at a Birthday gathering for Arthur Suime at his house. We laugh, dance, and yes sing. She was such a beautiful person inside and out. Sleep well young lady with the Lord. May Gods give peace and comfort to the family.

“ Not too long ago, I was listening to this pastor that said “we don’t know the time nor the hour... If we knew the time, our quality of life would be different.” And this young lady here was nothing but amazing! So caring... She would always check on me to see how I was doing since I’m “Super Woman”(her words). The last we spoke she told me Happy Mother’s Day and would always send me a jazzy little text banner(like she did on all the holidays... so thoughtful). This young lady lived her life how she wanted(I loved to hear her traveling stories). She was compassionate and cared about people. Her work ethic was impeccable and was always up for the challenge. She was there when I needed her to be with no questions asked. Some stuff I didn’t know, I knew I can ask her to help clear some stuff up. She was a hard worker and dedicated. The life she lived, her “QUALITY OF LIFE” , she lived it how she saw fit and was a ray sunshine on a cloudy day to many(including myself). My lunch buddy... Gone too soon and I’m going miss her. I’m praying for K’s Mommy who makes a bomb cornbread dressing, praying for her father, and her family.#hugs Janéa Evans

Rest my beautiful coworker/friend. I will enjoy every memory you have left with me. When I was told you were the Lead on the Team I was going to manage, I was so elated; because I knew you were a smart, intelligent, beautiful, sweet person and it was going to be easy to work with you. You had no problem assisting me with my job. You even came to my house to setup my equipment. Just a beautiful person inside and out and you will truly be missed. Until we meet again sweet angel, Gayle Williams

I never got to meet Karmaseh but I met her mom Carolyn at Capital Regional Hospital where my mom was a patient. She instantly became my mom's god daughter and my god sister. From reading all the wonderful things about Karmaseh she and her mother have the same spirit, energy and love for people, I heard a lot of great things about Karmaseh from her mom and she loved her dearly. I pray that GOD continue to keep the family strong. Know that GOD makes no mistakes. My prayers are with the family.

I am still in such disbelief that you're not here little sister. I've pondered writing this for the past five days. I first met Karmaseh at Old Navy, as one of her hiring managers. For me, once I saw she had recently moved from Houston (where I currently reside), and I saw the determination and maturity she had at such an even younger age, I knew I had to give her a chance. Twelve Years later we were still very much in touch with one another and talked about everything and nothing. She's even surprised me a few times and came to visit me in Texas. What wisdom and positivity she portrayed. I truly admired that about her. She loved her family and never met a stranger. What am I going to do without our daily check-in's with one another? Though this time has been difficult for all that knew and loved you, I'm at peace knowing you've found your peace my dear friend. Rest Easy and again my deepest and sincerest condolences to her family. She will be dearly and deeply missed.
