

Katherine Mitchell Hamm

April 18, 1936 - April 1, 2024

Annie Katherine Hamm was born April 18, 1936 to the late West (Buddy) and Essie Williams Mitchell. She was married to the late Charlie Esco Hamm for more than 31 years. To this union was born four children, Charles Hansel Hamm Sr., Patricia Hamm Lee, Charline Hamm Hall, and Lisa Hamm Hardeman.

She became an employee of Lithonia Lighting in 1966 and later transferred to Lithonia Emergency Lighting where she was a lead supervisor and a dedicated employee. She retired from Lithonia Emergency Lighting in 1992, after 26 years of service.

Besides her family and friends, Calvary Hill Baptist Church was her next great love. She faithfully served at Calvary Hill for more than 47 years. While a member of Calvary Hill Baptist Church, the Lord created a passion in her for the women of Calvary Hill. This passion grew and later became a ministry that would be known as Calvary Hill Baptist Church Ladies Seminar. The seminar has been an annual event for more than 39 years, with each seminar beginning with her favorite hymn Sweet Hour of Prayer. At no time was she not in her front pew dressed in her Sunday best, matching jewelry, and her Sunday heels. Those who knew her best knew her God given gift was the gift of hospitality. She loved feeding and serving others on her fine china to include stemware, place cards, butter dishes, gravy boat, and salt wells, along with her sugar crusted yeast rolls.

She accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as her savior in 1977. On April 1, 2024 God saw fit to call her home. She was proceeded in death by her son Charles Hansel Hamm Sr., grandson David Lamont Giles, her brothers Jessie, Wyman, Layman "Buster" and William Anthony "Tony" Mitchell; sisters Ruby Mitchell, Grace Jackson, Madeline Stewart, Dorothy Thompson, Eloise Printup, and Janice Johnson.

She leaves to cherish her memory her loving daughter in law Shirley Hamm (Charles Hansel Hamm Sr., her daughter Patricia Lee (Robert Lee), daughter Charline Hall (Joseph Dexter Hall) daughter Lisa Hardeman, sister Rebecca Chaney (Edgar Chaney), 18 grandchildren, 19 great grandchildren, three great great grandchildren and a host of niece, nephews, beloved grand pets, other relatives and friends.

“ Mother Hamm was so many things to so many people. She was the matriarch of her family and her CHBC family Her dedication to serving Christ is what I remember and admired the most. She always had a kind word and loving heart for everyone around her. Mother Hamm would always show her emotions. I loved hearing her share her past and see her tear up when she hadn't seen me in a while. She always made me feel loved and special. I will miss her tremendously.

“ I will always be grateful for the love Mrs. Katherine Hamm! Years ago, she taught a class for married women which birthed the Calvary Hill Women’s Seminar. Her class not only taught me how to be a Godly wife and mother, but she gave God’s clear instruction on how to love and respect as well as what it really means to submit (which was a four letter word in my vocabulary). I attribute Mrs. Hamm’s God-given commitment to Titus 3 to the fulfilling longevity of my 44 years of marriage. She did not leave home...she went home!❤️🙏👍

“ Our faith honors the Holy Trinity: God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. In addition to the trinity, at Calvary Hill Baptist Church had what I call “The A Team”. They were my true blues. The 3 people that could easily convict me of anything they did because I knew they loved me and expected better of me— like Christ.

These 3 women, Miss Hamm, Miss Charlene, and Miss Reid, had Jesus on the mainline. As a child, teenager, and now adult I truly believe they are God’s favorites and any disapproval from them HAS to be shared by God too. I also believed that if THEY prayed, especially all 3, God would definitely hear and move because...well they’re His favorites.

Miss Hamm was the core. The founding member. The OG of the A-Team. Her loving spirit felt like a hug even if she was just saying “Thank you” after being passed the communion plate. Always pleasant. Always kind. She could quote a scripture for any occasion or would make a face that silently lets you know she was thinking of one.

While she will be missed, she’s earned her wings. I’m happy for her graduation as she was the beautiful matriarch of Calvary Hill. And even though she’s no longer with us, I know I have the OG of my A-Team looking over us from the place of peace 😊

Thank you for the years of love, Miss Hamm!

Love Always,
