“ Adrian Epps and Family,

At this time of the loss of a wife, Mother, and Friend to many-- that God has another Angel that has a sweet spirit in heaven as she was on earth. May your strength in him keep you. Know that as long as she is in "our" hearts that she is forever remembered.

“ I am deeply saddened to learn of Kathryn's passing. Kathryn had a wealth of knowledge and experience, and I appreciated her willingness to share with others. She never pushed, but she provided advice and guidance when I asked for her help. Kathryn was an overachiever, and somehow, she still found time for her family and colleagues. She will be missed. I extend my deepest sympathies to Adrian and the family.

“ I first met Kathryn when she was a Ph.D. student at Georgia State and I was on the faculty there. Then, and through the years since, she has always seemed to be full of energy, warmth and a "gift" to all of those around her. God rest her soul, and sympathies to her many friends, colleagues and family who will miss her tremendously.

“ Since I heard of Kathryn's passing, we've been sharing stories of her life here at Kennesaw State University. A colleague told me of a mug she has from Kathryn, that was given to her at the time of the colleague's son's birth. She told me that Kathryn reminded her to take time for her self as she shared this new journey as a mother. She still uses that mug and remembers Kathryn's message to take care of herself. Another colleague shared her awe of Kathryn's wisdom, thoughts she relayed were shared by Kathryn in meetings. For me, Kathryn was a change agent at Kennesaw State. She cared deeply about inclusion and diversity issues, and she was committed to education as a pathway to a better life for those who lacked access and opportunities. Her presence will be missed, but we'll keep her alive in the stories we tell.
