“ My sister, my dear friend who accepted me “Just as I am”, I will miss your sweet encouraging words. You blessed me with your constant prayers and uplifting spirit. Although we had but a few years together, the love we shared was strong and we were united in Christ. I’m not liking you leaving but know God now has a faithful prayer warrior and soul gatherer. How you loved your family and church family was a true testament to your witness. People say rest in peace but I know you have already amassed a prayer group, bible study and a choir singing the heavenly notes. I’m sure I am hearing those everyday. You once told me we were bonded together forever! I am living with that promise 🙏🙏💕💕
