“ Whenever Keith was near you knew it. The boisterous laugh was infectious, and he had the smile that you couldn't forget.Keith, although I only worked with you marginally at Macy's Central you always made me feel as though I was a long time friend. You will be surely missed in this world. My sincerest condolences to his family.

“ Keith and I worked in the same support group at Macy's Central. He in Financials and I in computer applications. Keith was the fun comedic spirit that made it pleasurable to come to work during the roughest of times. Brotha you helped me through many a rough day and I love ya for that. My deepest sympathies go out to your daughter and family. I pray the Lord's Angels guide your spirit to a place of Grace and Peace.... Chris
