

Keith A Reynolds

November 22, 1948 - September 25, 2022

Obituary

Keith Arnold Reynolds ascended to glory on September 25, 2022. He was born to the late Joe Willie Reynolds and Johnnie Mae Session on November 22, 1948, in Chicago, Il. Keith received his education in the public school system of, the Chicago School System. Keith graduated from Dunbar Vocational High School in Chicago, Illinois, in 1967. Keith served in the U.S. Air Force in 1968 as a teletype technician (top secret crypto); was honorably discharged in 1973. He further pursued his education by studying music at Clayton Junior College in Morrow, GA, from 1975-1977. He married Valerie Duncan in 1981 and had eight bundles of joy.

He had various jobs, from sales to construction to maintenance/ janitorial. His favorite pastimes and interests included choral singing and tennis, but his strong point and gift was music. He found joy in contributing to his community as a cub scout leader, ministering to inmates at a local jail as a volunteer Chaplin, and performing as a one-man show at public schools during Black History Month. He also donated to a plethora of causes, from missions to the Lakota children. Keith obediently answered the call to the Gospel ministry, and on March 13, 2011, Keith was ordained to the Gospel ministry. Therefore, he became Pastor Keith Arnold Reynolds and served on the Pastoral Team at Set Free Atlanta. After twenty years of service, he retired from the Fulton County Public School System. His retirement was spent serving his community and local church as a minister.

He was preceded in death by his Father, Joe Willie Reynolds, mother Johnnie Mae Session, Grandmother Mary Revis, niece Mary Paige and brother Jance E. Reynolds. He leaves behind eight children: Jance (DeAnna), Nicola, Safiya, Jomaya, Jarmon, Jaron, Kalima, and Josias (Rachel); two sisters: Sharyl and Darroyln; two nephews: Jason and Trazhon, and two nieces: Sarah Rose and Lauren Grace as well as many relatives, friends and neighbors that were impacted by his life.

Pastor Keith often showed his Master's love for his Brothers and Sisters. Whatever you asked him to help you to do, if it was in his power to do, he would do. He walked miles and miles in the hottest month one summer, to see a brother who had just been released from the hospital. I will never forget you, Mr. Keith. To the Family: Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot cure.

“ We at the Brookhaven Library were so very sad to discover this news, and send our love to all of his many family and friends. I can say with certainty that all of us here will really miss him. He made us laugh every time we saw him, and his absence has already been felt here. He talked often of his children and how proud he was of them--sending you all peace and love.
