“ To my uncle Keith Taylor. You were more than a uncle. Thank You for your ongoing conversations 2 to 3 times a week. I gained a lot of knowledge and wisdom from you. But above all, thank you for putting my 1st tennis 🎾 in my hand. I was honored to follow in your footsteps as it relates to tennis. Each and every time I grace the tennis courts, I carry you with me. I'm really going to miss you.

“ My big brother, I'll miss you so much. We had the best conversations ever. There was not a time that you made me feel unloved or meaninglessness. You gave so much wisdom, insight, and compassion. I will always appreciate the way you made me feel, the visits, the talks and the plans we were making for the family. How we checked on each other and gave eye opening thoughts throughout our conversation. I thank you so much, and you are deeply missed. Thank you for letting me express my thoughts on anything and you expressed yours as well. That bond is in stone forever. As we always end our conversations, I LOVE YOU. Till God unite us again. Rest in LOVE and PEACE.
