“ Kenneth Ferguson was a friend of mine. We were stationed at March Air Force Base at the same time, and worked at the same duty station, we ate meals together, we bs'd and laughed with each other (I can remember "Fergy's laugh! He had a great laugh!), and lived in the same barracks, we were friends. He was a good friend and a good man. We are better for knowing him and we grieve his passing. My condolences to his wife and children and grandchildren.

*God Bless,

“ Dear Ken,

We have traveled a long road together from that first day we met in September of 1964. We were and have been close as brothers. As a matter of fact you were closer than any brother I ever had in this life. Some of it we can talk about and some of it we can't. Some of it is so incredible that people would say, "They couldn't have done that!" but, we did. We shared our last cigarettes and drinks with each other when it got close to payday and we didn't have any money. You came to Detroit to come to work with me, met your dear, wife Annie and got married and I stood up for you. We had a sense of humor with each other that no one else could understand but that was alright and we didn't care. But, in the end you knew I cared about you and I knew you cared about me. I told you, my brother the last time I saw you alive that I loved you and that I would meet you again one of these days when we were with the Lord together. So, "HAPPY TRAILS TO YOU, UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN BROTHER!" I am and will always be your brother in the heart and spirit.

Your comrade-in-arms,

Mike Sadaj
