“ I can't believe you are gone. Noone knows the hurt of loosing a parent...and so young. My heart goes out to your children and brother. You were one of my closest friends. You would give your last to the people you cared for. You made sure you and Tu kept in touch when me and my family moved away. You will forever be missed.

“ Where do I begin.... in 10th grade 1983 Walker High School, you took my hand and held it playfully, then we started holding hands for real. We kind of clicked in a good way, and held ON and OFF for 10 years. You fussed me out when I left for college without telling you; You could have gone too, but you chose to stay home and work along your dad. Mr. Randolph would have been proud of the father you were. Even though we both moved on and had our own families, you always had a special place in my heart. I will miss those conversations about trying to find shoes for Tu, Ashely work travels, the two Janae's, my dad eating habits, your eating habits, and our brothers height and weight. George, Audre, Girls, and Tu, know that I'm here for whatever you may need. Will miss you Kenny G, RIP. Veronica

“ As I sit back and look at my phone looking at his number and listening to his message he left on my phone. Kenny you will truly be missed. We had long conversation and that's because you were long winded but I enjoyed the conversation and will missed them truly. I'm still in disbelief that that I will never see you again here on earth. I will continue to treasure your words to shared with me. It means a lot to me. I will love and miss you dearly. RIP love. 🥹🥹🥹
