“ *I meet Kenneth when he was performing with his brother at a christmas party many years ago. Both him and Ronald touch a lot of people with their singing. Kenny had jokes and he was very serious when it came to business. He will be missed. REST IN PEACE Brother-in-law. May the lord comfort the family. Sending Love and Prayers! “ Uncle Kenny was a person who always looked out for me. He always kept it real, wouldn't ever sugarcoat things-- he just wanted to make sure I was ready for what was ahead.

Always telling me stories about himself and my dad, I would just sit and listen and think about these, and learn just how important family was; keeping those ties. He would tell me "you never know when you won't get to talk anymore". I value that lesson greatly, thinking about his laughter, and how I'll never let that go.

*For My Homie
Not often as we go thru the sands of time,you have the honor of finding a friend like mine.
We met in the five and dime,where our mothers shopped and our friendship
never stopped.
Thru love and fights,we hung out all night.
From no paper to Stacks
we had each other's backs.
Memories to last on and on.
Will always be shared ,
Now that my HOMIES GONE.
I'll miss you Bom.😭*

I will miss my cousin's laughter and our long talks. We shared our experience strength and hope with one another. Life threw some curve balls at him, but he overcame them to start his own business. I respect him for that. Much Love
