“ Man oh man where do I start? Uncle Ken you were everything and more , the perfect example of a GREAT man ❤️ I will miss our calls that we had once a week lol we fell off but we made an effort to stay in touch. I will miss you saying “ OOOOWEEEEEEEE their go my Deja or gassing me up telling me how good I look ”. I will you when I get to the top of the steps and don’t see you laying in the bed. I will miss your laugh and smile. You have always made me feel special and I will never get that back . I will always love you and will be there for your “PEANUT”. Overall I’ll just miss you being here. 🙄😭

“ I woke up Saturday morning with a heaviness on my chest that literally felt like my heart dividing in two pieces soon after, I received a call from sissy telling me you had gone to be with the Lord at 6:01am. I was heartbroken to learn of your passing but kept going back and forth in my head my plans to visit you in a few days: we'd read the bible together, talk about marriage and love, talk about cars, calls to talk about what was on your heart, etc. I will always be your cherished baby sistor and you shall forever remain my biggest fan Thank you for loving my sister beyond measure, treasuring all she is as your wife, girlfriend and mistress on the side {inside joke}. Sissy has cried so much since your physical loos. Can you just let her know you're good and you'll always watch over her with baby Ruth by your side. Thank you for being our brother/friend and not just a brother-in-law. I'll miss your wisdom, grace and brilliant smile. Love you always brother Ken.
