“ It is my prayer dear family that you have so many wonderful memories of Kenneth Mobley be they of a son, brother, uncle or Dad, that whenever and wherever the family gathers you will bring up his name and toast to a good time that you and he had together and, remember and, cry and, laugh both at the same time. For those who are willing to live their life in the image of HE who made us all, and keeps us until time is no more... we await the gathering where we shall see one another face to face and worship for Eternity with our FATHER. Live the life the reward is great and worth an Eternity. My humble prayers for each of you that grieves this loss.
