“ K. was a longtime friend and brother from way back. He had the biggest afro around. We shared many ideas and opinions. He had many unique qualities and was very witty and well read. He could talk sports with the best of them. His greatest love had to be his family. I'll never forget the bond he had with his mom and sisters. Gone to soon, but loved and remembered forever... Be strong family and be blessed.

“Wow where do i start i met Kenny when his mom lived on Seymour in CincyWe developed a close bond and it was never broken. My whole family knew Kenny. He's my brother from another mother. You could always expect the unexpected from him with that million dollar smile 😊 We hadn't seen each other in a while but that didn't matter. He will always have a place in my ❤️ Kenny i'm missing you already. Rest Now Sweetheart You Will Be Greatly Missed....Love you "Leroy" 🙏🙏🙏
