“ Sending my heartfelt condolences to Monica and family in the passing of Kenny. Our cousin Petral has always spoken fondly of Kenny. When I met the two of you at the Las Vegas reunion I quickly learned what she meant. Blessings of comfort to each of you. Jean Walker

“ *To the Thompson Family:
Our deepest condolences and love to your entire family. We send our prayers and are sorry that we are unable to make it to Kenny's homegoing. Edward and I are so very happy that we were able to share time with you during our recent time in Atlanta. We pray that God holds you in his loving arms and dries your tears.

“ To my cousins, Monica, Kenneth and Karen,

Our condolences to you and your family. God has eased Kenny's pain and as he now enters the eternal heaven to join his parents and brother. he will look over you all and thank you for being there when he needed you these past couple of years.

He will be missed by all of his friends and especially his extended family that was able to see and enjoy being in his presence at our family reunion just two months ago.

God bless you all, Andre

“ Dear Monica,

Kenny loved you and gave you so much accolades for being there when he needed you and helping him through his most difficult moments.

Just know that God is there for you. You are going to be just fine, trust in the Lord.

Love,

“ Dear Karen and Family,

We would like to share our condolences with you.

Not two months ago at the Gibbs Family Reunion, Kenny shared his testimony with us regarding his illness and how he was blessed. Kenny is still blessed because is with the Lord now, no more pain.

May you have solace in knowing that heaven is where we all want to be and someday will see your loved one there.

Blessings

“ To a man I came to love as a father, as well as one of our patients here at Southern Crescent Family Practice: Dr. Faith Andrews. He was a very humorous man, always making us laugh, always reminded me that his daughter is also named Karen. Never had a dull moment with him. He was always at peace. He will truly be missed and loved by all.....Karen Whitney
