“ My "virtual" cups of Prince of Peace ginger tea, Michael's clockwork calls no later than 10:30 pm, nightly, to/from Mom Shelby and his love for his daughter, "Ms. Delta" and for his son, Chris. I just learned of Michael's demise: I had a gut feeling that he was encumbered as he failed to respond to my messages-- passing up discussions about current events, especially, when talking about Nancy Pelosi was not in his character. Consciously, or subconsciously, Michael found solace in the calming affects of water--from the shore of Lake St. Claire, Silver Springs, Brookhaven and The River of Water of Life, clear as crystal, flowing from the Throne of God. My condolences to the Family. Feel free to reach out to me if you desire.

“ Kermit was my wingman in the Pentagon. He always shared good advice and had my back. He was so very proud of his daughter and looked forwards to seeing Mom on weekends. I am so fortunate to have been his shipmate. He made my days brighter and my life better. Jim Custer
