Kevin Ian Bryan was born June 13, 1975 in Ontario, Canada to Denis and Shirley Bryan. Kevin was the second of their two children, joining his older sister Andrea.

From the beginning, Kevin had a lifelong passion for learning. He attended Alexmuir Junior Public School at 4 years old and was identified by a teacher for a gifted student program at Churchill Heights Public School. After emigrating to Atlanta in 1991, Kevin continued his studies at Stone Mountain High School where he graduated with Honors. He then went on to study at Georgia Tech and Southern Polytechnic University and attained not one, but three, four-year degrees in: Computer Science, Computer Engineering Technology, and Mathematics. He also achieved his Master's degree in Computer Science and was a member of the National Society of Black Engineers.

Kevin came from a long line of musicians. His Grandfather, Gladstone Bryan played the piano by ear, he was a piano tuner and technician in Jamaica. His Aunt, Constance Bryan was a well-known pianist who performed throughout the Islands and Europe. Grandfather Frederick Spence played the organ, piano, harmonica and accordion by ear.

Kevin continued the musical legacy when he began formal piano training at age 4. Kevin had such a love for music that he also learned to play music by ear. He also received Certificates from the Royal Conservatory of Music.

Kevin accepted the Lord as his Saviour and was baptized at the age of 8. He used his musical talents to glorify God by playing the piano, singing with various groups and directing choirs. His knowledge and love of all types of music was evidenced by his extensive music catalog. Kevin encouraged and inspired several young musicians in their craft.

Kevin loved video games, which he shared and played with his younger cousins. He also had an impressive collection of Rubik's Cubes and a vast library of comic books.

Kevin traveled to Oregon, California, Florida, Ohio, Michigan, Canada and finally settled back in Georgia with his IT consulting career. Wherever he lived, he used his musical talents to bless the church he was attending. Traveling also allowed him to indulge in his favorite pastimes, walking outdoor trails and attending the Symphony.

Kevin is held in loving memory by his parents, Denis and Shirley Bryan, his sister, Andrea Ross, brother-in-law, AJ, and his niece Anaiah. Aunts & Uncles; Elaine & Charles Levene, Leonie "Precious" & George Irons, Nellie "Cherry" Spence, Paulon Spence, Norma Hoo, Sonia Bryan & Norma Bernard. A close contingent of cousins, Karen Levy (Richard, Andrew, Elysia), Camille Wright (Chris, Connor), Shawn Irons (LaTangela, Shawn II, Jasmine), Tanya Wright (Omar, Cameron, Ethan, Kyle), Althea Champagnie, Karen Champagnie Alman (Russell, Alexis, Aaron), Alan Bryan, Wayne Bryan, Kirk Bryan, Chanzo Bryan, Arthur Bryan, Jeffery Bryan, Chester Bryan, Kristina Hoo Saulsby, Glenford Hoo, a host of friends and a loving church family. Kevin was a treasured Son, Brother, Uncle, Cousin and Friend who will be greatly missed by all.

“ Deepest condolences to Mrs. Shirley, Mr. Dennis and all of Kevin's family and loved ones. Our heart is broken at the passing of Kevin so soon. But we are at peace knowing we have a hope for the future. Kevin was such a kind young man, always pleasant, always with a cheerful disposition whenever we came into contact. He always took the time to talk with me regardless of where he was heading or what he was doing. Considering how talkative I can be sometimes, he would patiently engage with me. I loved his politeness, his love for the Lord, his excellent musical talent, focus on his goals and his dedication to family. I will miss his bold sunshine smile. My two sons admired him greatly. I am thankful that I knew him. By God's grace I will get to know him even better in the sweet by and bye when the trumpet sounds and the dead in Christ Jesus shall rise to spend eternity in Paradise. No more parting, no more tears. Until that day of rejoicing may Kevin's family be comforted. Sweet peace as you rest in the arms of Jesus, Kevin. Our prayers and love are with you Mrs. Shirley, Mr. Dennis, Andrea and family and all Kevin's loved ones. Blessings ❤️💙💜

“ With Heartfelt Love and Support for Bryan Family:
I know this is a difficult time for you all. I pray that in time Beautiful memories lighten you grief. I remember his smile and Easy spirit when I met him at his Sister Andrea’s wedding. Daddy and Mama Bryan you both did a fantastic job raising two wonderful human beings. Andrea has been a Blessing to our family from day one of marrying AJ. Observing your loving family assures me that you are not alone in your grief and they are supportive 100 percent. Much Love to you All...Aunt Necie
