

Kevin J. Toatley

January 7, 1980 - September 19, 2015

Kevin Jermaine Toatley was born January 7, 1980 to Debra Toatley. He resided in Rock Hill, South Carolina until he and his family moved to Atlanta, Georgia.

From the time Kevin was a small boy, he loved the game of basketball. Kevin played at the middle, high, and college levels at Sutton Middle School, North Atlanta High School, and both Kemper Military College and North Georgia College and State University.

While attending North Georgia College, Kevin met Charkeshia. The couple instantly fell in love. From the moment they met, they were inseparable. Upon finishing their higher education, they moved to Jonesboro, Georgia. Kevin and Charkeshia joined in holy matrimony on July 17th of 2005. Shortly after marrying the couple moved to Fairburn, Georgia.

Kevin began his interim with the DeKalb County Police Department in January of 2007 shortly after his 27th birthday. Along with working for the department, he continued his love of basketball on the county's basketball team. The team traveled the United States playing the game Kevin loved, winning several awards and honors. Kevin was a dedicated man. He gave his all to everyone and everything he was involved with daily. Anyone that came into his path was enchanted by his huge bright smile. A smile that was so intoxicating others could not help but smile back. He was a true gift. Kevin J. Toatley was preceded in death by his sister, Camilla Toatley in July of 1999. He leaves to continue his legacy: his wife, Charkeshia Toatley; grandmother, Mrs. Claudie

Toatley; his mother, Debra Toatley; sister, Natasha Toatley-Gresham (Norris Gresham); his nephew, Troy Gresham; and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins, a god daughter, other relatives, and many dear friends.

“ Kevin was a former college basketball teammate of mine his freshman year. Unbelievable guy. Soft spoken, high integrity and boy did he love his grandma. He had a great head on his shoulder and you always knew he would do well in life. Silky smooth jump shot to go with a quick crossover too. Rest in Peace Bro. Heaven received another angel.

“ Love you always my sister! God will continue to comfort you and guide you through this. Although the pain will never go away, there is comfort in knowing that the time he allowed you to have was precious and meaningful. Hold on to the memories that were created and he will continue to live on through all the hearts of people who knew him and loved him. “Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.” ~ Matthew 5:4
