

Khalyn Rhys Swinney

April 13, 1995 - July 11, 2025

Khalyn Rhys Swinney was born on April 13, 1995, to Jeffrey and Laurlyn Swinney. As the youngest of seven children, Khalyn brought a special light and energy to the family from the very beginning. Surrounded by love, laughter, and many voices, she stood out with her quick wit, infectious spirit, and natural charm. Though her siblings often called her “the baby,” in many ways, she was the heartbeat of the family.

A proud graduate of Meadowcreek High School, Khalyn dedicated her professional life to logistics. She was always striving to grow, learn, and better herself both personally and professionally.

Khalyn was a deeply loyal and caring soul who loved wholeheartedly. She showed up for her loved ones and fiercely protected those she cared about. Whether cracking a joke, offering advice, or simply being present when she was needed most, she did it all with grace and heart.

She cherished the simple joys of life—binge-watching shows, family dinners, having heartfelt conversations, and spending time with her loved ones.

Khalyn leaves behind a loving family who will forever hold her memory close: her mother, Laurlyn Swinney; her father, Jeffrey Swinney; her grandmother, Ann Yarbrough; her grandfather, Sylvester Wood; her godmother, Michelle

Harris; and her siblings, Khree Swinney, Khristopher (Kiana) Wood, Edward (Jared) Greer-Boggan, Cheryl Nunnally, Alisha Greer, and Temecka (Cornelius) Greer-Majied. She is also survived by a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, extended family, friends, and loved ones who were truly blessed to know her.

“ Khalyn thank you for being the light of the family. We celebrated your horning yesterday and you could see and feel the love and influence you had on everyone you encountered. Now in the presence of the Lord, free of pain and suffering. You taught everyone how to fight on and so we will. Love you always!

“ We worked together about 2 years ago. Khalyn was so nice and kind. I don't drive and she would drop me off at the train station. We kept in touch after we both left the company we worked for. She will be missed. Rest in peace my friend. We will meet again. My sincere condolences to her family.
