

Khloe Nicole Lynch

September 10, 2016 - January 7, 2019

Khloe Nicole Lynch, age 2, passed away on Monday, January 7, 2019 in Lawrenceville, GA.

Khloe was born on September 10, 2016, at Emory Decatur Hospital in Decatur, GA, to parents Derhon Lynch and Shacoyia Maxwell. Khloe spent the first 7 months of her life with Children's Healthcare of Atlanta at Scottish Rite Hospital in Atlanta, GA in NICU and TICU as a Tracheostomy patient. She was adored by the entire CHOA staff. We were excited to welcome her home on April 13, 2017. While at home Khloe began making great progress! She loved to watch Elmo and Barney throughout the day while she played with her favorite toys. Her most favorite beloved toy was her "Elephant". Khloe was a very loving child, she loved to cuddle. She expressed her affection by reaching out to touch your face. As loving as Khloe was, she would also let you know when she didn't want to be bothered. Khloe was a fighter and she fought until her last breath.

Although her time was limited, she made a great impact on everyone's lives who had the privilege of knowing her.

Khloe will "Always and Forever" be in our "Hearts"!

Khloe is survived by her parents, Derhon Lynch and Shacoyia Maxwell; her sister, Kayleigh Lynch; her maternal grandparents, Lamont Jones and Relisha Maxwell; her paternal grandparents Rohan Lynch and Denise Rumble; her aunts, Jahnai Jones, Ashlee Lynch and Sarah Lynch; her uncles, Marc Lynch, Matthew Lynch and Joshua Lynch; her uncle and aunt, Rich and Shavonna Robinson; and her Godmother, Rebecca Ramos-Yunker.

Memorial services will take place at Gregory B. Levett & Sons Funeral Home in Lawrenceville, GA on January 19, 2019, 11:00 a.m. EST. Close family and friends are invited. Flowers and sympathy gifts are welcome.

“Khloe was nothing short of a fighter, her spirit and spunky personality could light up any room. During our time together I watched her grow and change but one thing stayed the same; her determination to be herself and enjoy life as it came. I have so many fond memories of Khloe from watching her learn new moves and play with new toys to throwing the ones she didn't like right back at me. Khloe also had a sweet, loving side that melted my heart each time she leaned in for a hug or a touch on the face. Her presence will be dearly missed. My deepest sympathies to the Lynch family. I will forever keep her in my heart.

“ My sincerest condolence to you and your family for the loss of your beautiful daughter. There are no words or acts of kindness that can mend or ease the pain that you are feeling. The loss of a child cuts so deep that it may seem that you may never heal but take note that our Heavenly Father knows how you feel and He feels the same pain as you. When I am face with losing my love one to death I often reflect on the reaction Christ showed when Lazarus died. In John 11:33, Jesus saw Mary and other crying "he groaned within himself and became troubled"..that groan came from deep inside of him, feeling such great sorrow and pain/agitation... in verse 35, Jesus cried. Like Jesus, our Heavenly Father feels that same pain, that groaned, agitation ...that blow that death gives us..like a punch to the chest..If you find the time to read that chapter you will see that Jesus had resurrected Lazarus. The promise that is written in Isaiah 25:8 is not far off at all. I pray that you and your family may find comfort not only with each other but from our Father above. Isaiah 41:10 "Do not be afraid , for I am with you. Do not be anxious, for I am your God. I will fortify you, yes, I will help you, I will really hold on to you with my right hand of righteousness."

Reliesha I don't think I ever met your daughter or was aware you were dealing with this challenge. I do know the trials, tribulations & the gift of caring for a chronically sick child. I know the sacrifices that are made, the sleepless days & nights & the desperateness of wanting to jump in their and take on the battle to spare your child and or grandchild. I know the heaviness a nana carries because she has two hearts she is overseeing that of her own child and her grandchild because don't know what I would have done without my mother. Life hands us alot of challenges but I don't think their is any greater challenge than burying a child. My prayers & deepiest sympathy goes out to you, your daughter and all that loved on this Angel. My heart cries for you all. I will only say hold on to God's unchanging hands, cont. To keep him near and dear and hold on to your daughter & family. One day at a time. The photo shows a glimpse of a beautiful angel who has gained her wings. 🙏🙏

You are an inspiration to many at such a young age... so I remember when we all visited GA for your Grandmothers Birthday (Relisha) and we were all in the living room at your Auntie Shavonna's and you were watching your tablet... it was obvious you thought we was distracting your program by the side eyes you gave us 😊!! Yeah we did have the music, laughter & Loud talking going! You had it right! Such a precious Jewel!!*
