“ Kiahna you will be truly missed. You touched so many lives with your bright personality and that big smile that could make anyone's day better. It's hard to believe an angel like you is no longer on this earth to share your happiness. I don't think anyone from BHS will ever forget you. My heart goes out to your family for they have lost a truly special person. Love you KW!

“ Kiahna, you truly were like a little sister to me. We had such great memories throughout high school and your beautiful personality always shed light even at the darkest times. The contributions you made in my life will never be forgotten and I will never forget how we were brother and sister throughout high school. My condolences go out to your family who I know is hurting. Rest in peace Kiahna I love you. - Big Brother Danny

“ Kiahna, I still can't believe u left us so early. You were such a nice and positive person. Your smile was very contagious. Our bus rides from sporting events will never be forgotten. I pray that you are in a better place even though it is not fair that God had to call u home so early. You'll never be forgotten. Lots of love Blessing:)

“ Kiahna, you were a great friend and wonderful person to be around. Being on various sports teams together, going downtown and spending the night at eachothers houses will only be a portion of thousands of memories that I've shared with you. I'll always remember Tyson, the nickname everyone gave you, but also kiahna the girl with a brilliant smile who knew how to have a fun time. I'll miss you and hope your looking down on us and looking out for everyone. With much love to you always! -elizabeth

“ You were such a joyous and beautiful soul to be around. I will always remember that warm, vibrant smile of yours and how you deeply touched a lot of lives. You were one of my closest friends in school and I am grateful to always be able to have all the great memories that I have with you. You were taken from this life to young, but God must have needed you as his special angel, to watch over and guide us. Rest in peace beautiful. Gone but never, ever forgotten.
