“ I remember helping babysit Kiara when she was a little girl. Never, in a million years would one think you would leave this world so soon.
May you rest peacefully with the Most High.
My Deepest Condolences.

“ I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death. God is aware of your sorrow and "He sent His only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." ~1 John 4:9. God empowered Jesus to resurrect dead ones when he was on the earth; giving us evidence of what He will do in the future. Consider Jesus' assurance recorded at John 11:25...."I am the resurrection and the life; the one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life."

“ To the family of Kiara, she will always live on in your memories and in your hearts. I only met her a few times in life as a child but she brought all of you joy and happiness. Remember those times, reflect on the good and be happy that you shared great moments and untimely joy with her. She is free now from pain and is smiling down upon you with love. She is happy, healthy, and will meet you later in heaven where you will be together forever. Her time here is over, but her time in heaven is forever.
Love you Kiara, from your Aunt Cynthia Roussel - New Orleans, LA

“ So sorry for your loss, Ms. Strickland-Prowell no doubt brought joy to her family and friends. Death represents the loss of future dreams, relationships and experiences that have not yet been enjoyed. In the Bible Acts 17:31 said ‘God has provided a guarantee to all men by resurrecting Jesus from the dead’. This guarantee transcends to all humans (a better place)
