“ Sending condolences to Kim's family. I met Kim working at the IRS. She was the most beautiful person inside and out. She loved the Lord. She always posted bible scriptures on Facebook. Such a positive lady no matter what she went through. She fought a good fight and kept the faith. She is at peace and out of pain. Praying for the Cartwright family that God will strengthen you every day. Teresa Hickey

“ To Gregg and Scotty,

May God Bless, keep and strengthen you all one day at a time.

Kim was my friend and co-worker at the IRS, as, a matter of fact, I trained her, when, she started, she had that beautiful smile, no matter what was wrong. We would talk for hours about any any and everything, even, when, she left Notice Review, we still would run into each other, she'd come over to the 4800 for something or in class, or, I'd go over to the Customer Service Building.

I will miss her and most assured, you guys will, but God have other plans for her and I can just hear her up in heaven talking to the angels about being a true and living survivor of her illness.

Gregg, I always enjoyed before retiring, e-mailing you and checking on Kim and Scotty.

*Take care,
Barbara Stembridge*
