

Kim Duval Johnson

October 9, 1960 - September 7, 2025

Kim Duval Johnson, beloved wife, mother, daughter, sister, and grandmother, passed peacefully on September 7, 2025, surrounded by her family. Born and raised in West Palm Beach, Florida, Kim later made her home in Roswell and Blairsville, Georgia. She is preceded in death by her mother, Sarah Strianese, and her stepfather, Jim Strianese.

Kim's greatest joy in life was time spent with her husband and daughters. In May, she and her husband celebrated thirty-two years of marriage together. Their bond was unlike any other — true best friends, always together, and completely inseparable. Their love carried them through every season of life, a steady partnership marked by devotion and care.

She will be remembered as the definition of a nurturing mother — caring, gentle, and endlessly devoted to her family. Kim's sweetness, easygoing nature, and ability to bring levity to any situation made everyone feel at ease. She found joy in her garden, in caring for animals, and in spending time with friends and neighbors. She was "Aunt Kim" to many, and a cherished cousin, niece, and friend.

Her legacy is one of love, kindness, and a nurturing spirit that will be deeply missed.

Kim is survived by her loving husband, Paul Johnson; her daughters, Catherine Elizabeth "Izzy" Johnson (partner Adam Morgan), Samantha Johnson (husband First Born), and Darby Schaepli (husband Rob Schaepli); her grandson, Finn Schaepli; her father, Robert Cammack Duval, Sr.; her brother, Robert Cammack Duval, Jr.; her sister, Deena Duval Keeler; and her step-brother, Michael Strianese.

All are welcome to celebrate her life Saturday, September 20, 2025 at 11:00am at the Glenn Memorial Church - The Little Chapel 1660 N Decatur Rd. Atlanta, GA 30322.

“ Izzy and I grew up together from the time we were eleven, our lives woven through the same neighborhood streets, the same circle of friends, the same front porches and summer evenings. At the heart of so much of it was Kim.

She raised Izzy and Sammy with a love that made their home a steady place in a world that wasn't always steady. When I lost my own mom as a teenager, Kim's arms were the ones that wrapped around me. That moment was just one piece of the bigger truth: she had a way of making everyone feel like family.

Kim's legacy lives on in Izzy and Sammy, in their strength, their kindness, and the love that will carry her memory forward in all of us who were lucky enough to know her and love her
