Reflections of Life

Today is a celebration of the life of Kirby Anthony Farley. Kirby was born on August 2, 1961, in Atlanta, Georgia to the late Joe and Lucile Farley. He was preceded in death by two brothers Roy Flanigan and Randy Farley.

Kirby was educated in the Atlanta Public School System, graduating from East Atlanta High School Wildcats, Class of 1979. He enjoyed and participated in band, track, soccer and varsity football. He was recognized as an outstanding football player and a devoted member of the band. Kirby attended Atlanta Area Technical College while he played semi-professional football.

Early in life, Kirby dedicated his life to Christ and became a member of Israel Baptist Church. He was loved and adored by all and was known as a stylish dresser. He married Edwina McGhee from this union came Christopher Farley and Jason Culver.

Kirby had a passion for cars and mechanics. He progressed in various positions throughout his career. Specifically, he was employed by Delta Airlines and Royal Oldsmobile.

Kirby had a strong bond with his family and friends. His spirit was like no other. He loved music and could often be heard singing as he walked.

Kirby leaves to cherish his memories sons Jason Culver and Christopher Farley (Christina); loving sisters JoAnn Williams, Rita Ballard (John), and Janice Grady; brothers Daryl Farley (Glenda), Kenny Farley (Tracey), Jerome Farley (Lakel); nephew Johnnie Carmichael III (Sonja); two grandchildren Jae Culver and Chandler Farley; a host of nieces, nephews, extended family and friends.
