“ I’m so hurt! I came to surprise you and see how your mom was doing and was told you were gone. Friend how?? The fact I was able to say bye and have to look at this with not a photo on it hurts my heart. Thank God we had a ball the last time. Me you and your cousin lol we were so tired we had a sleep over in your room. You gone ☐ My kids are even in shock. I pray your babies are good and you are truly resting! You were the best Kita!! Love you always and forever

“ Kita you truly was my friend. We use to see each other every day before I moved. You knew all of my children and grandchildren and showed them so much love and kindness. I miss you even more now. Thank you for sharing a part of my life. The last time we spoke you were saying how proud you are of your girls and you wanted me to do your hair. I wish I could have seen you and spent time with you dear friend. I will keep your spirit alive by always remembering you. My deepest condolences to your family and friends from Nette, Diayshia, DeShawn, TaJae, Zionna and your godson Ian. We love you and we keep you lifted in prayer.
