

LAMAR MACK HARDAWAY

August 15, 1968 - September 12, 2025

It is with profound sadness that we announce the passing of Lamar Mack Hardaway, who departed this world on September 12, 2025. Born on August 15, 1968, in Atlanta, Georgia, Lamar led a life filled with passion and dedication, leaving a lasting impact on his family, friends, and community.

Lamar called Stockbridge, Georgia, his home, where he was a beloved member of the community. For 35 years, he worked tirelessly as a truck driver, embodying commitment and perseverance. The open road was not just his occupation but his second home, where he forged countless friendships and created lasting memories.

In his personal life, Lamar had a fervent love for old school cars, often spending his weekends at local car shows and enjoying long drives through the countryside. He was also a die-hard fan of the Atlanta Falcons, wearing his pride for the team on his sleeve. Whether at the stadium cheering on every play or passionately discussing the latest game, Lamar's devotion to the Falcons was well known.

Lamar's gentle spirit and warm smile will be missed by all who knew him. His circle of friends and family knew him as a kind-hearted man who never hesitated to lend a hand or share a laugh.

Lamar is survived by his beloved family, whose lives he touched deeply every day. Though his passing leaves a void that cannot be filled, the profound love and cherished memories he leaves behind will remain forever in the hearts of those who loved him.

Funeral arrangements are being provided by Gregory B. Levett & Sons Funeral Homes & Crematory- South Dekalb. As we gather to remember and celebrate Lamar's life, we invite all those who knew him to join in honoring his memory, sharing stories, and finding comfort in the legacy of love he leaves behind.

Rest in peace, Lamar Mack Hardaway. You will be greatly missed, but your spirit will live on in the countless lives you enriched.

“ I knew him as Coach Lamar. He was such a joy to be around. When the boys had a shaving cream fight after practice he was cheerfully running away engaging with them. When I got tired on a trip with the boys Coach refused to let me quit. I felt so much better after achieving that goal. To the family, the CDJ Family has you lifted in prayers.
