“ Lamar was a mentor and a big brother to me. It's not going to be easy without him. He was always a phone call a way. I'm going to miss him so much. Thank you for being a light in my life and allowing God to use you. You will be missed my friend. Condolences to his wife, his children and all the family and friends he leaves behind on this earth..

“ *Camille,
You and your family will be in my prayers now and always as you grieve the passing of your father. Keep your eyes on God because He does not make mistakes. Take your time to grieve. Let me know how I can be of service to you and your family.*

“ *To the loved ones of Lamar Jones Jr., Please accept my sincere condolences on the tragic passing of your dear one. As you grieve and try to return to life's routine, in the days, and months to come, may God prove to be a strength and a refuge for you during this time of distress and sadness. (Psalm

“ I never met Lamar Jr. personally but, I know that your dad was "VERY PROUD" of you. I know that you are on your way to God's House helping to prepare a place for the rest of us. So long young man and we will finally meet at the table that the Lord has prepared for us. Rest in Heaven young man God now has you! God Bless your Family!

“ My condolences to you all. Keep in mind that God made a provision to resurrect dead ones in the past when he empowered Jesus to restore life to dead ones. He promises a future when "Your dead will live....They will rise up." ~Isaiah 26:19. He is faithful and always keeps his promises!

“ *My condolences in the loss of your loved one. May you be comforted by the words found at Psalm 147:3 which says: He (God) heals the brokenhearted; He binds up their wounds. Also the words at Isaiah 33:24 which says: And no resident will say: "I am sick".
The people dwelling in the land will be pardoned for their error. May these scriptures provide strength and encouragement to you at this sad time.*
