“ Lanze has been our neighbour for the last 13 years and in hearing of his passing, was a shock because he was a man so full of life and was loved by all who knew him well. Heartfelt condolences to his family and may God's continued peace be with you today, tomorrow and the days ahead. Always remember that joy will be greater, love will be stronger and life will be fuller because of the moments that were shared. Rest in sweet peace Lanze. The Feurtado family.

“ Apostle Roberto, Lady Monica and family extends their sincere condolences to the Blagrove family. We have known brother Blagrove for over 20 years and can reflect on many precious memories.

“He was the first driver we ever drove with that would take his eyes of the road to look at you and dint get into an accident” Needles to say we prayed hard during the duration of the ride.”

RIP. Brother L. Blagrove.
