“ So many fond memories. We grew up together and were family. We played pattycake together. I was always at her house which was right next to our church-from the green house to the big house in Roosevelt. We were always involved in church YPI, YPWW, Conventions and trips to Bear Mountain. Her successful career at ABC didn't change our relationship. She could play that organ too. To be able to call someone friend for over 65 years is a blessing. Her memory will forever be etched in my heart. From labor to reward. Rest in Heavenly Peace. Love you always💜❤️💜
