“ Mr. Hill was such a special person. He always had a bright smile and kind words. I remember when my mother transitioned, he had encouraging words, prayers and even gave me a book of prayers and poems. It really meant a lot. He was always willing to help and go the extra mile. I considered myself lucky to have had the opportunity to work with him. He was a friend as well as co-worker. He would often talk about how proud he was of his family. I will continue to lift the family up in prayer. Bonita Fluker

“ Peace, Love and Blessings to the Family and Friends. Mr. Hill always had a smile on his face whether at work, Fairview Community with his Grandson or changing my alarm batteries. The largest smile was exhibited while walking his Daughter down the aisle. Rest Peacefully My Friend.
