“ To the Mathis family, I was so saddened this news today of Larry's passing. What a fine gentleman, father, brother and most of all a Christian man of God. Those Moreland Ave. church of Christ days are indelibly etched into my mind of all the smiles, talks, and most of all encouraging words we shared. I could go on forever about this brother with that "million dollar smile" that could light up any room.

You're smiling with God and the angels now, we love you Renita and kids for sure. We'll see you all soon!
