“ To the family of Larry T. Daniel. Please accept my condolence for your loss. The passage of time can ease our grief somewhat, but we can take true comfort from Ps. 34:18 that assures us that Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted, and he is always near those crushed in spirit. May the peace of God continue to be with you.

“ *Please allow God's word to calm and comfort your hearts.at (Isaiah 25:8)
He promise to swallow up death forever and to wipe the tears from all faces.
hope that this scripture comfort this family during this time.
My condolences to you all.*

“ To: the family of Larry T. Daniel the Moss/Brown family send their condolence. Release Me: To those I love and those who love me. When I'm gone , release me, let me go have so many things to see and do: You not tie yourself to me with tears: Be happy that we had so many years; I gave you my love- you can only guess how much you gave to me in happiness. I thank you for the love you each have shown But now it is time I travel on alone; So grieve a while for me, if you grieve you must then let grief be comforted with trust: It is only for a while that we must part so bless those memories within your heart I will not far away, for life goes on so if you need me, call and I will come. Though you cannot see or touch me I'll be near. And if you listen with you heart (you will hear) all of my love around you, soft and clear; Then when you come this way alone I will greet you with a smile and Welcome you Home
