“ The Larry Timmons Family:

My heartfelt sympathies go out to the Timmons family after reading the announcement of Larry's passing in the Atlanta paper. I first met Larry in the Wellness Center (WC) at DeKalb General Hospital where he routinely worked-out after a courtesy ride from his residence in Covington, Georgia. He was always a friendly, likeable, and personable individual and we often discussed so many pearls-of-wisdom with others in the coffee room after exercising. I always enjoyed Larry's Facebook posts and reading and digesting (i.e. if possible) the many descending comments received by his old New Orleans friends and political opponents including Emile H, Roger B, Paul P, and so many other commentators. I tried to be supportive of Larry in his posts but oftentimes was beat back by the conservative-pack mentioned above. All-in-all, both groups got their points/opinions across to the other dissenters in an amiable and friendly way.

I will greatly miss Larry and may he rest in eternal peace and now without pain. God bless his immediate family, other relatives, and Larry's old high school and college friends that knew him for so many years. Larry, rest in peace and you will always be remembered, missed, and loved by all.

“ There are not enough words in the world to explain how much Larry Timmons meant to me. He was, first & foremost, my first love & my oldest son's Father. But throughout the years, he was so much more than that-a friend, a protector, a confidant-always ready to talk, to listen, to help. His strength, wisdom & kind words were always there for me to draw from. I will always & forever cherish his memory and be grateful to God our Heavenly Father for the time he was in my life. I offer my most sincere and heartfelt condolences to my son Larry Timmons, Jr and the entire Timmons family on the loss of this great man.

My deepest condolences to the family and loved ones of Langston University's own "Big Tim." We attended Langston together in the 70's and he was an athlete, a scholar and a gentleman in every respect. He and I connected through FB after parting ways 40+ years ago, in fact, he was one of my 1st FB friends. I never connected the name Larry Timmons with the person I knew, "Big Tim," and oh what joy to have made that discovery. God Bless you Tim as you travel on your journey ... knowing that the love of God surrounds you and holds you. Til we meet again, my Brother, RIP!

From the time we met in 1976 consistency about Larry Timmons that everyone immediately noticed after you "got over" the awesomeness of his size,....one word.....kindness. 3, 1/2 year fellow student, and teammate(I lined up behind him, so the opponent couldn't see me!). We also worked out (weight lifting) together in the off-season. He had my back(great teammate). Visited N. Orleans 1 time('84) and the first person I wanted to visit was Larry(I couldn't find Pitt). I introduced him to my fellow coaches and he took me on a tour and visited his family.Until recently we stayed in touch. Forever in my memory "Big Tim"

Big Larry...A great man. One of the most genuine, sincere and loyal people on this earth. When you came into our family as a brother in law we never imagined or dreamed of all the wonderful heartfelt moments you would create for us as a family. How you alone would be the very tie that binds us. Very quickly you were no longer an in-law and more than a husband to my sister or a father to my nephew, but a brother, an uncle, our best friend and a son. You have always been here for me, my children, my brother and especially my mother and for that I will always be grateful. Having the chance to know you and watch you as a father was one of my greatest life's lessons in raising my son to be a great man. Your wisdom and unconditional love to all is undeniable. You are truly a gift from God and all too soon He decided that He needed you back home to fulfill His purpose. You are so deeply missed and will always be cherished by us all. We will keep your memories alive everyday in every way possible and continue to share all the joy and stories we have. We will continue to celebrate you in life until we are with you again in Paradise. Thank you for being a blessing to us all. You truly are one of very few...the last of a dying breed! We love you dearly and will carry you forever in our spirit.

To the family of Larry Timmons Sr,

My heartfelt prayers go out to each of you and I pray your faith will heal you quickly. Remember to hug each other, love each other and LAUGH, it will heal your soul in ways you cannot imagine. Larry's laugh was infectious and would spread like wild fire! Prayer will keep you going and God will keep you strong. We love you all and will keep you in our prayers.
