“ Dear Mom,

Today we were able to honor you...to celebrate your life. I am so proud to be your daughter. I have so many fond memories of you and I. You were there for every moment of my life, the ups and downs, my own personal cheerleader. You taught me perseverance, courage to continue on but most importantly you showed and taught me unconditional love. I'll miss our daily talks, running errands together, I'll miss you but I know you're at peace free from pain and worry. We love you! May you rest in eternal peace.

*Love,

“ Hi Shani

Please accept my condolences for the passing on your mother, she was truly one of the people that you will only meet once in a lifetime, she was passionate about education and family. You were truly the apple of her eye. Thank you for sharing her with us.

“ Lasandra you were and will always be my sunshine. You were always there for me. You were my big sister. Your words of wisdom were always welcome and helped me in more ways than you could imagine. She was a source of comfort to many. I can honestly say that she helped to shape the woman that I am today. Oftentimes she was my sunshine on a cloudy day. Lasandra, RIP and I send you home with all my love. Mary Lewis

“ We had a lot of memories in Labor Relation. Many times we were a family. One time LaSandra and I had to do our Black Mother thing on a young summer intern. As his boss, I had a serious conversation with him and he started to cry, thinking he could play me. I told him he thought he was man enough before When he did the action & he had better man up now. I left the room and when I returned, I had LaSandra with me. I said, before you had the boss and now you get the black mother treatment. I said if you were my son, as I moved toward him with my hand going up, I'd slap you upside your head. I swung, purposely Missing his head as he ducked. Then LaSandra went to work in him. Later we made him write a dissertation on sexual Harassment in the workplace. We plopped manuals in front of him and kept him busy all summer.

All who knew her, saw her loving, caring, give all to others, individual arc the sake of herself.

“ I remember my first time meeting LaSandra when she first came to MTA. We both worked at the Chemical & Physical Lab located in Crown Heights. We instantly became friends and shared a great fellowship. She was loving, caring, generous and humorous. She will be missed, but surely heaven's gain. Take your rest, my sister and friend! 🙏💕🙏

“ Beautiful person, the only way I can describe Lasandra. She was always the same, always upbeat, always encouraging. People drew to her because of her infectious personality. I loved talking to her on the phone. She would help anybody that crossed her path. She was one in a million. She will truly be missed. Love you Lasandra. RIP. 💕💕💕💕💕💕 Diane

“ Dear big sis, I will miss you dearly. You were such a kindhearted, strong, tough and loving sister, mother, daughter, aunt, grandmother and friend. Always made sure everyone was ok, and helped in anyway you could, pushed us when needed... I love you and will miss you a great deal. I know that you are resting peacefully.

“ I will miss her, she was more than a sister-in-law she was inspiring and very caring, I loved our conversations and how she would always find the good in situations. Her level of intelligence was amazing and the way she encouraged education, that she took very seriously. I loved Lasandra-Davis-Howard and will miss her dearly but will cherish the memories always. Gone but never forgotten. Theresa Farr ❤️

“ LaSandra was my boss in the early 90's and then she became a very close friend. She introduced me to her family and invited me to spend quality time with them. We always encourage one another, but over the last eight years, she became my number one encourager. I will miss talking to her and viewing her encouraging post, but I will cherish our memories as long as I live. I love you LaSandra. I'm so proud of all of the achievements you made along the way. God bless you as you always told me and thank you for allowing me to be a part of your journey and for being a part of mine. 💖 Estelita J. Parker 💖
