“Lashonia was one of the most beautiful souls I have ever known — absolutely genuine, gracious, spirited, and simply fabulous in every way. She wasn’t just an exceptional hairstylist; she was an incredible woman, a devoted mother, loving wife, and a successful business owner who carried herself with grace and purpose.

For many years, she was my hairstylist, and she always delivered the very best quality service. But what truly set her apart wasn’t just her talent — it was her heart. She cared deeply about her clients.

Every visit, she made sure I had my ginger tea, either bringing it herself or asking one of the other stylists or receptionists to make sure “Mrs. Sheila” was taken care of. If I wasn’t feeling well or didn’t seem like my usual cheerful self, she noticed immediately. She would gently pull me aside and say, “Hey... what’s wrong? You don’t seem like yourself today. How can I help?”

And she meant it.

She didn’t just ask — she listened. She cared. She would even help me troubleshoot whatever I was going through. That kind of genuine compassion is rare these days.

Lashonia was truly a beautiful gem, and her light will continue to shine brightly because of the kindness, love, and dedication she shared so freely. She understood her assignment in this life, and she completed it with grace and beauty.

Much love, always and forever,
Sheila

“ Shonia, a beautiful soul. I knew back in 2012 when you started doing my hair; that you would be more than my stylist but my friend.

I enjoyed us laughing about so many things; most vividly you doing Journee hair too and saying "don't worry I'm gone get her to talk" and you did. You had a warmth about you that would have even the most guarded kid open up and talk your head off nonstop. And from the time she was 7 until her now being almost 21 you would say "she gone be alright, she'll figure it out".

I am thankful to have known you, you were the true definition of "living a life poured out" from your gentle voice to your warm laughter, to your words of encouragement, to your unmatched talent; we would laugh because each year on my birthday I would say "this is the year, I'm cutting my hair" and you would say "you know we don't believe you right". Each year when I think of that, I'll think of you (and you're right, I probably won't).

The love you had for your husband, your girls, your sweet grandbabies, your sisters, friends, family and the community at large is unmatched. The way you wanted everyone around you to win, in whatever their gift is, was a calling that you walked in; you filled this earth with goodness, that was needed. I am a better person because of you!

I hope and pray that as your soul took flight, you knew how much you were loved, and adored. Please continue to watch over us all; and know that this eternal rest is reward for your labor here on earth.

Until we meet again

Love you Shonia
