“Aileen, I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your husband. I will keep you and your family in my thoughts and prayers. I pray the love of God enfolds you during this time of grief.”

“To the Family and Friends of Mr. Mungin: I offer sincere condolences and comforting reminders from God's Word. "He (God) sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1 John 4:9). This provision gives us confidence that we can be reunited with our loved ones. In fact, Jesus said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). So may your faith in God's secure promises comfort you all now and in the difficult days ahead!”

“ Dear Family and Friends: I am deeply sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the "Mungin family" much comfort, here "The Most High God Jehovah" assures us that death will be "swallowed up forever and tears wiped from all faces. And we have the opportunity of being reunited with our dead loved ones again as promised at John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15. May your pleasant memories of Lateef, and the reliability of this wonderful promise, soothe and comfort your broken hearts until you can embrace him once again. God always keeps his promises (Titus 1:2). My sincere condolences.

“ "To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord." 2 Corinthians 5:8

To Aileen, Jade, Ami and the entire Mungin Family:

May there be comfort in knowing friends are here for you and they share your sorrow.

Peace and God's Love Always,
