“ We started out as co-workers, but then we became friends. And now you are my angel. I am going to miss you Tanya, you were a sweet, loving and genuine person, and nowadays that is hard to find. May God continue to be with your family, and help them through this troublesome time.##imported-begin##Clarice Dodd##imported-end##

“ We offer sincere condolences to the family. May God's loving provisions to resurrect our loved ones give you comfort and encouragement. God's Word assures us that: "The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (John 5:28, 29) Keep in mind that God cares! John 3:16 provides the clear evidence of his love for us.##imported-begin##The Parks Family##imported-end##

“ As a teenager she encourages me with my efforts in school and told me to strive on. Mrs., Jones was one of a kind, and it really broke my heart to know she will no longer be here to share her kindness and caring with other as she has done for my brother and I. God Bless her soul. She will never be forgotten because of the impact she has had in people lives.##imported-begin##Crystal Baptiste##imported-end##

“ My heart goes out to your family in this time of grief. John 5: 28, 29 speaks of a time when we will be able to see and enjoy being with our dead loved ones again...forever. John 17:3 tells us what we need to do in order to receive that promise of everlasting life. May the God of all comfort bring you some comfort in these difficult times.
