“ Travis, I was my first true friend at work. He was my mentor, friend, and most of all my family. He was there for me and my family when my dad and husband battled cancer. He was always willing to help and had a heart bigger than the world could handle. I will truly miss my brother and friend. Thank you for being a great friend bro! Fly high “ Travis...or as i liked to call him...El Jefe, was a wonderful boss, mentor and friend. He was ready and willing to help you in a pinch or provide wisdom when needed. I had the honor of knowing him and learning from him so much, not just about work but about life. I will miss the friendly banter we shared about your beloved falcons and my boys. Rest now my friend and know you will live on in our memories!

“ Travis was not only a great mentor but a great friend, and I will truly miss you. I'm truly grateful for how much he has helped me develop my career at Progressive. Over the past few months, we started being intentional about meeting up at different restaurants to grab brunch and talk about life and work. It was truly good times. I enjoyed the moments, and I will never forget them and everything he's done for me over the years. To Travis's family, Valerie, and his children, please accept my sincerest condolences, as my thoughts and prayers are with you all during this difficult time. Travis, rest easy my friend. Love you man.

“ Travis was a kind soul that brought joy the Chapa family. One of my fondest memories was when Texas was hit with a winter storm and Travis lost power, so he drove 3 blocks to our house and spent the week with the Chapa's. We laughed, drank whiskey and smoked cigars, watched movies, went out to help other friends in need, we cooked and ate lots of tacos, he also made me walk 10k steps a few of those days.... I still remember it like it was yesterday, it was such quality time that our family will cherish for a lifetime. He will be truly missed.

“ I owe my career to Travis. That man is a great person and helps out whoever whenever. He took a chance on a person he didnt know and I am forever grateful for him and my family is forever grateful for him. I pray his family can find some peace. I know he loved his daughters soo much and I pray that they are doing as well as they can.

“ To the Powell Family, Faye Powell and Felicia West-McCall. My sincere condolences and prayers for your strength in the passing of Travis. He will always hold a dear place in my heart. I'm glad we got a chance to reconnect after 20 years and have some great conversations, laughter, go down memory lane and talk about our faith in God. He is now in a better place, resting and no longer in pain. He is now a special angel watching over you all. Mathew 5:4, Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.
