“ I knew Ms. Lauren through marriage of my Granddaughter to her Grandson. I met her only briefly thru the years but I remember her with great fondness. She had a beautiful soul. My deepest and heartfelt condolences to the family and her close friends. I know such a beautiful soul is resting with her Lord this day. Although I am not able to be at her service please know I am there in spirit... God bless you each

“ Ena was our sweet friend at Covington First United Methodist Church. We enjoyed sitting with her during church services. She had a beautiful voice and could sing any song without looking at the hymnal. We were blessed to know her. Bob and Linda Hapner
