It's never easy to say goodbye to someone who brought so much love, joy and happiness into the world to so much people. A kind and loving mother and friend to many who have crossed your path.

A true example of a person who is selfless, and very mindful of the feelings of others. And instead of saying goodbye, I say, see you again someday.

I will always cherish the memories you shared during your time with us that will never be lost.

Journey well my friend, be at peace knowing you have left behind many who are mourning you today, but you will always remain with us in spirit.

Sleep well.
