“ Your mom was such a special person to me and my entire family. So glad we had the opportunity to spend some time in her company recently. Her joy was infectious, and she had a way of lighting up every room she was in. We are grieving with you and your family during this incredibly difficult time.
Wishing you peace and comfort as you remember her beautiful life.

“ Dear Family...I was so very sad to hear about your loss. I live in Chicago, but visit Atlanta often to visit my family and my childhood friend, Yvonne.

I met Laverne through Yvonne and she quickly became a treasured part of my visits. She was a joy to be with, filled with kindness, good energy and fun. We loved going out to restaurants, went to a play and she was just a pleasure to be around! She spoke of her family often and I am sorry I have not had the opportunity to meet you.

Know that I will miss her but she remains in my thoughts. I will hold your family close in prayer. I ask God to surround you with comfort, peace and strength.

I was sorry to hear of Laverne passing. I came to Georgia in 2005 and my daughter worked with Laverne at The Art Institute. Laverne took me under her wings and we spent a lot of time together. I introduced Laverne to the nanny business. I will miss her. Rosalind Williams

To Latice , JaNeen and family, my sincere condolences to the family, I met Laverne many years ago through my sister Cissy here in Woonsocket, we became friends immediately, what a classy lady beautiful in and outside. She actually stayed at my place in 2024, we had a lovely dinner and breakfast. My heart is broken, I pray that God gives your family the strength to get through these difficult days. Rest in peace Beautiful lady, you will be missed. S Oliver Woonsocket RI.

“ Laverne always had a quick laugh, a ready smile and an opinion. She was ready for a road trip or an adventure at the drop of a high. She could hold her own at a game of Scrabble. You will be missed, dear friend.
