“ My heart is heavy upon hearing the news of the passing of Lawrence. Although I knew him in youth, as the memories return, I can say that his positive spirit left an imprint on me as a person on me and I believe others as well. Even at the age 12, 13, 14 I recall he seemed to have a certain wisdom. I remember him as a friend and I hope that God continues to bless his family.

“ My sincerest condolences for the loss of an AWESOME MAN. I had the honor of meeting Lefty while stationed at Hurlburt Field AFB. He was the most down to earth person that anyone could ever meet. Even when we crossed paths later in life, he was still the same regardless of his level of success. He would always be willing to share all he had with those he loved, and came in contact with. God called on this ANGEL to serve in his heavenly kingdom and in LEFTY FASHION, he answered the call. As his soul rest in heavenly peace, may the family find strength, peace, and understanding during this time of loss.

“ Dear Vanessa, and the Nelson Family, I am truly shocked and heartbroken to hear of Lefty's sudden passing. My Prayers are with you and the Family. You know him and me became like brothers in our Junior and High School years (had to because all we had were sisters), so I know he was a great guy. But what I love the most is that he got to show and share that with the rest of the world. Vanessa, my best memory is being there at the beginning of You and Lefty's journey together, always my favorite couple. May you find comfort in the wonderful family and memories you two built together.

“ Upon arriving in this lovely neighborhood, our first stop was at Nelson's backyard, where we were warmly greeted by the residents of Spencers Mountain. Interacting with Lawrence and Vanessa was a joy, as we found their laid-back, welcoming personalities to be delightful and comforting. Having such wonderful people as neighbors made us feel truly blessed. The news that followed left us in disbelief, prompting a moment of shock and reflection on the unpredictable nature of life. The loss of Mr. Lawrence Nelson will be deeply felt, and our hearts go out to Vanessa and the family. Words can't fully express our condolences, and we recognize that Lawrence's presence will be irreplaceable. We trust that God will provide comfort and support during this difficult time.

“ Vanessa, I've been in shock for days, after learning of Lawrence's passing and I continue to try and come to terms with it. I extend my heartfelt sympathy to you, your two young men and the entire Nelson family. When I first met you two at Rod & Aerin's, it was obvious that you were the love of each others' lives and that shared love produced two wonderful, accomplished sons. It's not going to be easy, but if you all draw on the strength that God has already provided, it will gradually allow you to adjust to your "new normal." My sincere prayers are with you and the entire family and may God rest Lawrence's soul.

“ To the Nelson and Maxwell families:

We were shocked and saddened by the passing of Lawrence. Although we haven't been in contact in a few years, we were so appreciative of the way he handled the building of our Greenridge home. He was honest, professional, and easy to work with.

We pray that God will comfort you during your time of grief, and eventually, the memories you shared with Lawrence will bring joy to heart and a smile to your face.

“ Very surprised and saddened by this news. I met Lawrence and Vanessa in 1991 when I built their first home. Amazing couple that grew into an amazing family. I followed their journey even though it was from afar the last couple decades. Lawrence was a fair and honest man. One of the most dedicated and hardest workers I have ever met. He was willing to do the work to make his and his families dreams become reality. This world needs more souls like his. Prayers to Vanessa and the family.

“ Dear Vanessa,

I'm deeply saddened and praying fervently for you and the boys. We met Lawrence as parents seeking the best college for our boys, and I'm grateful for the wonderful friendship we built from this. Cherishing all the time spent together and so glad we got an opportunity this past Christmas season to connect. I love you and am here for you always.

With deepest sympathy,

John and Trina Hill

Lawrence was a very kind person. He built our home in Greenridge and never made us feel like we were just another transaction. It was truly a pleasant experience, compared to others we have had. After selling our previous home and incentivized to move out quickly, we were in somewhat of a difficult situation. He literally allowed us to stay in one of his empty rentals for six months rent free while he built our new home in Greenridge. Although we didn't want him to do this, he insisted. Given the quality and creativity of his work we were going to sign the contract even if he hadn't done such a kind thing. Truly a kind individual. Many prayers to the Lawrence family!

To the Nelson family.

I was caught off guard hearing about the loss of your loved one. The news of his death has impacted me in a greater fashion, as I recently suffered the unexpected loss of my wife, so I can truly say that” I know what you’re going through “.

Stay very close to GOD and KNOW that even through this, HE IS STILL IN CONTROL.

Your entire family is being prayed for.
